STIPULATION OF COMPROMISE

WHEREAS, the plaintiff herein, [REDACTED], has instituted suit in the above-entitled cause for himself and to the use of Farm Bureau Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, upon a certain claim against the United States of America and [REDACTED] its agent, which claim is set forth in the complaint filed herein, and

WHEREAS, said suit is cognizable under the Federal Tort Claims Act of August 2, 1946, as amended, and

WHEREAS, the plaintiffs herein are willing to accept from the United States the sum of Fifty-Five and no/100 Dollars ($55.00) in full satisfaction of their said claim against the United States, and

WHEREAS, the Attorney General of the United States finds, pursuant to the provisions of Title 28, United States Code, Section 2677, that payment of said sum by the United States will be substantial justice for the claimants, it is accordingly,

AGREED, by and between the parties to this cause that the United States will pay, and the plaintiffs will accept Fifty-five and no/100 Dollars ($55.00) in full satisfaction of their said claims against the United States and of all claims against the United States, or any agency or employee thereof, on account of the occurrence alleged in the complaint, and it is

FURTHER AGREED that, in consideration of this stipulation of compromise, the plaintiffs hereby dismiss their complaint as to the defendant, United States, and as to the defendant [REDACTED] with prejudice and without costs and without interest on said amount, and it is

FURTHER AGREED, that in consideration of this stipulation of compromise, the defendant United States hereby dismisses its counterclaim against plaintiffs with prejudice.
